Section II CPEL Requirements and Results

The CPEL process includes evaluation of a personnel experiential learning abstract for each course outcome and a review of prior documented education and training.

Personal Experiential Learning Abstracts:

On attached sheets, please describe what your background is in relation to each of the listed course objectives and outcomes listed below. You may combine several outcomes in a single abstract. If you do so, indicate clearly which outcomes the abstract pertains to. In addition, you may attach documentation from the current or former employer.
